Pallett Valo LLP welcomes John Russo as a partner

Toronto, Ontario – Monday, January 7, 2008 – Pallett Valo LLP, the leading business law firm in Mississauga, is pleased to announce that John Russo, a member of the firm's Commercial Litigation Group, and Insolvency & Corporate Restructuring Group, will be joining the Pallett Valo partnership.

“Pallett Valo is delighted to recognize, reward and fast-track talented lawyers such as John Russo,” said Pallett Valo managing partner Anna Esposito. “We proudly welcome him to the partnership.”

“I am delighted to join a group of partners that has led this firm into becoming Mississauga’s largest law firm,” said Mr. Russo. “I have been with the firm 8 years and I am looking forward to building my career here. It is an exciting and challenging place to work.”

Mr. Russo practices in the area of commercial litigation, with a particular focus on contractual disputes, collections, asset recovery, and enforcement of security. John’s clients include mid-size and large companies across a number of industry sectors, as well as financial institutions.

Mr. Russo was called to the Ontario Bar in 1999 and the State bars of New Jersey in 1997 and New York in 1998.

Pallett Valo has 26 lawyers, including ten partners, 17 associates and 48 support staff.
