

Survival Training for Business Transitions

Wednesday, November 12

8:00am – 10:30am

If you're thinking of transitioning your business in the next 10 years, join us to get the survival tips you need to successfully, and proactively, manage the process.

Sponsored by:

PALLET VALO LLP
Lawyers & Trade-Mark Agents

ONIDA
Coaching + Consulting Inc.

Seminar objectives:

- Explore options for business transitions, including the impact of family dynamics.
- Develop a long term strategy to prepare your business for a transition, and get the best price possible if selling.
- Gain control of the process, and learn the least stressful way to manage a transaction.
- Discover common mistakes in exit planning and how to navigate them successfully.

Who should attend?

- Privately held business owners thinking of selling or exiting in the next 10 years.
- Advisors to privately held businesses

Presented by:

- Michael Walker, National Director and Michele Middlemore, Vice President, Aon M&A Transaction Advisory Group
- Murray Gottheil and Brian Reiss, Partners and Senior Members of the Pallett Valo LLP Business Law Group
- Jennifer East, Founder and Family Business Coach, ONIDA Coaching + Consulting Inc.

7:45am – Registration
8:00am to 10:30am – Seminar
Glenerin Inn
1695 The Collegeway
Mississauga, Ontario
FREE PARKING
Full breakfast will be served

$30.00 per person – register with
Leah Norman at lnorman@pallettvalo.com or 1.800.323.3781