Getting to sold:

Preparing your business for sale to maximize your return

Wednesday, September 22, 2010

8:00 am – 10:30 am

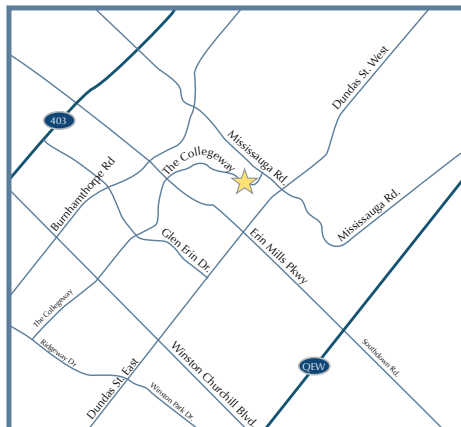

Breakfast at 7:30 am • Presentations begin at 8:00 am

The Glen Erin Inn - 1695 The Collegeway, Mississauga, ON

The recent economic turnaround is heating up the Mergers & Acquisitions market. With profits on the rise, many businesses are looking more attractive to buyers than in the last few years.

Business owners may be lining up to sell, but the competition for a buyer's interest is fierce. How do you make your company stand out above the rest while maximizing your return? Experts in the legal, financial and tax disciplines will show you what steps you need to take to prepare your business to obtain the best possible return, now or 5 years from now.

- Learn:
- The different ways to sell your business and the tax implications of each
 - How to market your business and find a buyer
 - What private equity firms look for in choosing companies to invest in or purchase outright
 - What the sale process is really like from a seller's perspective
