We understand how important your clients are. You have worked hard to build a solid relationship with them by providing impeccable service. You excel at what you do. But who do you turn to when it is beyond your scope of expertise? Get the comfort from knowing that you are sending your clients to a legal team that values them as much as you do.

From broken contracts, and bankruptcies, to allegations of negligence and insurance disagreements, we know how risky business disputes can be. We provide clients with a litigation strategy that is right for them. Our approach is unique. At Pallett Valo our lawyers offer sharp insight and have a depth of knowledge to ensure that matters are resolved effectively and efficiently with a minimum of business interruption.

With the largest Commercial Litigation Practice in Peel Region, we deliver expertise in a vast array of complex litigation matters. We take the time to understand client's goals and priorities and then provide innovative solutions to help them get the best outcome possible. We apply a business approach to commercial disputes recognizing the benefits of litigation avoidance and early extraction strategies.

There are times however when client's interests are best served by decisive and aggressive action in the Courts. At Pallett Valo we have an enviable track record. Our litigators have extensive trial and appellate experience and have fought numerous motions over injunctive remedies such as Mareva and Anton Piller Orders.

Most importantly, not only are the clients we serve highly valued so are the people who refer them. That's why whatever type of litigation matter we are asked to assist with we will provide the very best legal counsel we can.

Call today to find out how we can help.
