There have been lots of changes since the beginning of 2023 that business law and not-for-profit and charity lawyers need to know: Bill 91, Less Red Tape, Stronger Economy Act, 2023 passed third reading in May and the changes in Bill 91 will come into effect on October 1st, 2023; an interesting case out of Saskatchewan seems to have caught everyone's eye and has been in the news; and practice management requirements impose additional burdens on lawyers (including identification and verification requirements relating to clients and lawyers)

Hear about the latest updates and legislative developments in Ontario (including recent changes to electronic meetings, electronic record-keeping and some potential unforeseen consequences), discuss practical tips to avoid inadvertent non-compliance, and a case law update of interest to business law and not-for-profit and charity lawyers.
